What is NRHH?

• A nationally accredited honorary society for student leaders living in university housing
• An organization dedicated to recognizing those who have demonstrated leadership and service in advancing the residence hall system at UMD
• A chapter that annually selects 1% of the UMD campus for membership
What does NRHH do?

Leadership
- Opportunities for leadership growth and development

Service
- Collaboration with on-campus service organizations
- Active membership includes 3 hours of service per semester

Recognition
- Recognizing others through OTMs, or “Of The Month” awards
- Active membership includes writing one OTM per semester
“Of The Month” Awards

An OTM is an award that recognizes on-campus students, staff, programs, and organizations that have impacted the UMD Residence Hall Community, such as:

- Desk Attendants (CA)
- Resident Assistants (RA)
- Resident Advisors and Directors
- Custodial and Maintenance Staff
- On-Campus Organizations and Communities
- Service, Diversity, Social, and Educational Programs

To learn more or submit an OTM, visit nrhh.umd.edu/NRHH/OTM-submission.aspx
Application Requirements

• GPA of 3.0 or higher
• Must have lived on campus (including Commons and Courtyards) for at least 2 semesters (including the current semester)
• Must be in good academic and judicial standing
• Must demonstrate outstanding leadership and service in the UMD community

Membership Benefits:
Lifetime membership, networking opportunities, leadership development, graduation stoles, and NRHH apparel!

Apply by November 10th at nrhh.umd.edu
UMD National Residence Hall Honorary

@MarylandNRHH

nrhh.umd.edu