The Constitution of the National Residence Hall Honorary at the University of Maryland

Preamble

We, the resident leaders at the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary, in order to recognize individuals who contribute outstanding service and who provide important leadership in the improvement of the residence hall experience and to maintain a commitment to scholastic achievement, do hereby ordain and establish this constitution.

Article I: Purpose

Section I: Role and Purpose

1) The University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary (hereafter referred to as NRHH) shall undertake and serve the following purposes and roles on behalf of its members:
   a) To provide recognition to members of the University of Maryland community who have provided outstanding service and leadership, which benefits the lives of University of Maryland residents.
   b) To serve the campus community and the surrounding area.
   c) To provide networking opportunities from a diverse membership body.
   d) To help members grow as students and as leaders.

Section II: Pillars

1) The University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary will recognize and practice four primary pillars or aspects of campus life. These pillars are Recognition, Service, Leadership, and Scholastics.

Article II: Organizational Overview

Section I: Name

1) This organization shall be known as the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH).

Section II: Affiliation
1) NRHH shall maintain affiliation with the following local, regional, and national organizations:
   a) The National Association of College and University Residence Halls, Inc. (NACURH).
   b) The Central Atlantic Association of College and University Residence Halls (CAACURH).
   c) The University of Maryland Residence Hall Association (RHA).

Section 3: Sponsorship

1) NRHH shall be sponsored by the University of Maryland’s Department of Resident Life.

2) The University of Maryland’s National Communications Coordinator, as an Executive Officer of RHA, shall affiliate NRHH annually.

Article III: Membership

Section 1: Types of Membership

1) There shall be four recognized forms of NRHH Membership:
   a) Active Members
   b) Early Alumni Members
   c) Alumni Members
   d) Honorary Members

2) Once an individual has been inducted as an NRHH member, he/she needs to be an Active Member for at least one semester in order to become a Member for Life.

3) Member for Life status may be recalled if a member is removed in accordance with the stipulations outlined in Article 6, Section 5 of this Constitution.

Section 2: Active Membership

1) Applicants seeking active membership in the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary must meet the following criteria in order to apply for membership:
   a. Candidates must have resided in the University of Maryland residence halls for one complete semester before applying.
   b. Candidates must engage in outstanding service or possess exceptional leadership skills, which benefit the residence hall community.
   c. Candidates shall possess a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
   d. Candidates must be in good academic and judicial standing with the University of Maryland.
2) Active members of NRHH shall be defined as University of Maryland undergraduate students, residing in University of Maryland residence halls or University sanctioned housing, who have been chosen by the Selection Committee to become a member of the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary and who fulfill the following requirements:
   a) Participation in at least three (3) hours of approved service each semester, as determined by the Vice Chair of Community Service.
   b) Attend at least 75% of the meetings per semester.
   c) Attend that semester’s Induction Ceremony.

Section 3: Early Alumni Membership

1) An Early Alumni of an NRHH Chapter is a member that is still living on campus but can no longer meet the chapter membership expectations.
   a) Early Alumni members do not count toward the 1% membership cap.

2) The following guidelines apply to the procedure of applying for early alumni membership status:
   a) The member and/or chapter must complete the early alumni membership application which shall include the signatures of: NRHH Chair, Chapter Advisor, and chapter member for whom the form is being completed.
   b) The completed early alumni membership application shall be submitted to the Regional AD-NRHH for approval.
   c) The number of early alumni members a chapter shall be granted per academic year will not exceed ten percent of the chapter’s membership cap.
   d) It is the right of the Regional AD-NRHH to deny requests for reasons including, but not limited to:
      i. The application form is incomplete.
      ii. The Regional AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures were taken by the chapter to address the member’s inactivity with chapter business before submitting the application.
      iii. The chapter has exceeded its allotted early alumni membership approvals for the year.

3) If the member and/or University of Maryland Chapter wish to appeal the decision of the Regional AD-NRHH, they may appeal to the entire AD-NRHH board. The decision of the AD-NRHH board shall be final.
   a) Each AD-NRHH shall have one vote
   b) A simple majority shall be necessary, with the NRHH Chair casting the tie-breaking vote when necessary.

Section 4: Alumni Membership

1) An alumni member of an NRHH Chapter is a member that has moved off campus or is no longer a student.
2) Alumni members do not count in the 1% cap.

Section 5: Honorary Membership

1) Honorary members of NRHH shall be defined as a staff member of a department of the University who directly affects resident students.

2) They are nominated for recognition purposes only.

3) Honorary members do not count in the 1% cap.

Section 6: Membership Removal Process

1) A member may be removed if they are inactive for two consecutive semesters.

2) After the first semester of inactivity, the Vice Chair of Membership will reach out to the inactive member, in order to notify that they have a probationary semester to become an active member.

3) If, after the second semester, the student did not make a visible effort to meet active member status, the Vice Chair of Membership will begin the removal process, as outlined by the National Bylaws.

4) A removed member loses all benefits and privileges that they received upon induction.

Section 7: Selection of Members

1) Members of the University community can nominate residence hall leaders for membership by the established deadline.

2) Applicants shall submit an application to the National Residence Hall Honorary by the established deadline. Applications shall be approved by the Executive Board and advisor(s), and then voted on by the General Body. Applicants must receive a 2/3 vote of approval by the General Body to be inducted.

3) The members of the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary will meet to select new members once during each of the fall and spring semesters.

4) The active membership of the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary shall not exceed 1% of the students in the residence halls.

Article IV: Executive Board

Section I: Purpose
1) The executive board shall exist to guide the organization and serve all members by fulfilling the following purposes:
   a) To fulfill the purpose of the organization,
   b) To provide leadership and guidance for the organization
   c) To provide opportunities for the Membership to remain Active Members

Section II: Selection of Officers

1) The officers of NRHH shall be selected at the end of the spring semester

2) Candidates for office shall be nominated by their fellow active members, and must be an active member themselves.

3) Candidates must receive a majority vote of all present members in order to become an officer.

Section III: Executive Board Members

1) The executive board for NRHH shall be comprised of the following:
   a) Chair
   b) Vice Chair of Recognition
   c) Vice Chair of Service
   d) Vice Chair of Membership
   e) Vice Chair of Administrative

2) The Roles and Duties of the Executive Board shall be outlined in the NRHH Bylaws.

3) Executives may appoint ad hoc positions necessary for the organization and may appoint ad hoc committees.

Section IV: Terms of Office

1) The term of office for the executive chairs of the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary shall be one year from induction ceremony to induction ceremony.

2) If an officer is unable to complete their term, the Executive board and Advisor(s) shall follow the procedure set forth in the NRHH Bylaws.

Article V: Advisor

Section I: The Roll of the Advisor

1) The Advisor shall provide guidance and context for NRHH.

Section II: Qualifications
1) NRHH shall be advised by at least one staff member of the Department of Resident Life.

Article XI: Amendments

Section I: Amendment Process

1) Amendments to this Constitution may be presented in a resolution form to the General Body and must be approved by a four-fifths majority of present, Active Members.

2) Amendments to the NRHH Bylaws may be presented in a resolution form to the General Body and must be approved by a three-fourths majority of all voting members.

Section II: Dates of Amendment

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sep. 20, 2014</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oct. 12, 2014</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Article I: Affiliation

Section I: Dues to the National Office

1) NRHH will pay the required dues per year to the National Office of the National Residence Hall Honorary in order to retain membership.

Section II: Chapter Reports

1) On behalf of NRHH, the National Communications Coordinator shall submit to the National Office of the National Residence Hall Honorary:
   a) A list of new members
   b) The names of officers
   c) The name(s) of the advisor(s)
   d) A copy of the current constitution
   e) An affiliation form
   f) And any other pertinent information as requested by the National Office of the National Residence Hall Honorary.

Section III: Affiliation Deadline

1) Affiliation shall be completed by the first day of the CAACURH Regional Conference

Article II: Executive Board

Section I: The Chair

1) The Chair of NRHH shall be the official spokesperson and liaison for the chapter and will facilitate all communication and publicity functions for the organization.
2) (S)he shall also be responsible for the successful communication between all members of NRHH.
3) (S)he will also preside over General Body Meetings and Executive Board Meetings.
4) (S)he shall be responsible for effective leadership to ensure that the roles and functions of the organization are carried out.
5) (S)he shall also be recognized as the official liaison for NRHH to the Residence Hall Association (RHA) and all other student groups, organizations and administrative bodies at the University of Maryland, College Park and abroad;
6) (S)he shall be charged with the power of upholding the image and dignity of NRHH according to the NRHH Constitution.
7) (S)he shall handle finances for NRHH in conjunction with other executive board members.
Section II: The Vice Chair of Recognition
1) The Vice Chair of Recognition will work as a liaison with other campus groups, specifically the Residence Hall Association, to coordinate, collaborate, and support campus activities designed mainly for the students living in the residence halls.
2) (S)he will also direct the Of-the-Month program and create systems of recognition for the University of Maryland campus.
   a) It is the responsibility of the Vice-Chair of Recognition to have typed nominations on the NACURH OTM official forms and send campus winners to the Regional NRHH Executive Officer on a monthly basis.

Section III: The Vice Chair of Service
1) The Vice Chair of Community Service shall coordinate service activities and programs to benefit the campus community and surrounding communities.
2) (S)he shall also provide monthly service opportunities for members to complete their one-per-semester community service requirement.

Section IV: The Vice Chair of Membership
1) The Vice Chair of Membership shall coordinate the recruitment efforts of new membership.
2) (S)he will be responsible for the application and acceptance process
3) (S)he shall coordinate any induction ceremonies
4) (S)he has the option of hosting informational sessions or meetings for membership recruitment efforts.

Section V: The Vice Chair of Administration
1) The Vice Chair of Administrations shall keep minutes at General Body Meetings and Executive Board meetings to be filed for future reference.
2) (S)he shall also keep the website up to date and handle all room reservations/logistics/AV requirements for NRHH related events.
3) (S)he shall also develop promotional materials for NRHH.

Section VI: Vacancies on the Executive Board
1) If an executive position becomes vacant during the semester, the Executive Board and advisor(s) may appoint a replacement to complete the reminder of the semester.
2) If a vacancy lasts more than one semester, an election will be held during that semester’s induction ceremony to elect a new Executive Board member.
3) At the beginning of each academic year, the Executive Board and Advisors will select the order of succession if the Chair is indisposed.

Article III: Meetings and Membership

Section 1: Quorum
1) Quorum shall be determined as 50% plus 1 of currently active membership for the University of Maryland National Residence Hall Honorary.
2) To ratify an amendment, it must be approved by 2/3 of the active members present.

Section II: Induction Ceremony

1) There shall be an Induction Ceremony during the Fall and Spring semesters.
2) The Vice Chair of Membership shall be in charge of planning the Induction Ceremony with the help of the Executive Board and Advisors.
3) Absences from inductees must be pre-approved by the Vice Chair of Membership.
4) Attendance at the induction ceremonies is a requirement for Active Membership status by old and new members.

Section III: Active Membership Rewards

1) To recognize active members for their continued service, several tiers of rewards have been established:
   a. All new inductees receive the National Residence Hall Honorary membership certificate lapel pin and their name will be engraved on the National Residence Honorary recognition plaques.
2) After no less than one year of active service, active graduating members will receive either a National Residence Hall Honorary stole or cords for graduation.
3) Exceptions will be made for senior inductees who do not have the time to fulfill the requirements to receive the lapel pin and the recognition plaques.
   a. If a senior is inducted in their second to last semester, then they will receive the appropriate rewards as long as they meet the active member requirements for one semester.